

TERMS OF SALE

1791 Gunleather utilizes responsible manufacturing practices and we rely on our customers to exercise responsible use of our products. However, since we have no control over the use of our products once shipped, all 1791 Gunleather products are sold "as is" and "with all faults".

In the event that the product proves defective following its purchase, the buyer assumes the entire risk of all necessary servicing and advising 2nd Amendment 1791 LLC to enact the guarantee. No circumstances exist under which 1791 Gunleather or authorized retailers be held liable for either incidental or consequential damages, such as loss of use of property, commercial loss, or loss of earnings. Any previous implied or expressed warranties of merchantability and fitness for particular purpose are excluded from this transaction and product. The determination of ongoing fitness and suitability of any product for specific use is the responsibility of the buyer.

Variances in color saturation due to the nature of handcrafted products, may exist and may result in the actual product differing slightly from depictions in either our catalog or on our website. 1791 Gunleather reserves the right to make changes to the product built and/or sold, as needed at any time, without being required to make changes in product previously manufactured and/or sold. 1791 Gunleather products are produced according to the industry's strictest good manufacturing practices. Produced with 100% American Native Steer Hide, Assembled in Mexico. Prices and models are subject to change without notice. Some US states do not permit the exclusion or limitation of implied warranties or liability for incidental or consequential damages, so, for legal reasons, the above limitations and exclusions may not apply to customers in every state.

The designs, features, and names of 1791 Gunleather products, distinctive marks and trademarks are the exclusive property of 2nd Amendment 1791 LLC and their subsidiaries and all persons including but not limited to, individuals, firms or corporations are forbidden from imitating, copying or reproducing them in any way in accordance with the legally filed copyrights obtained.

FIREARMS SAFETY INFORMATION

READ PRIOR TO USING 1791 GUNLEATHER PRODUCTS

Firearms are potentially dangerous weapons and should be kept out of the reach of children. They should be handled properly by trained individuals only. The handling or operation of a handgun may be dangerous and may result in serious personal injury or even death. It is not recommended that any person handle any firearm unless such person has successfully passed an accredited firearms safety program. Exercise great care when handling, storing, or transporting firearms.

CARRYING A HANDGUN

Carrying any handgun with a live cartridge in the chamber immediately in front of the firing pin may cause an accidental discharge of the firearm. It is recommended that single action revolvers and some semi-automatic pistols be carried with the hammer or firing pin resting on an empty chamber. It is the responsibility of the user to exercise extreme caution when handling or carrying any handgun and to assume at all times that the gun is loaded. Do not attempt to cock a handgun while it is in the holster, as this may result in damage to the holster and gun and may result in accidental discharge.

TESTING A NEW HOLSTER FOR A PERFECT FIT

- Never holster a loaded handgun without first testing the holster with an unloaded firearm.
- 1791 Gunleather holsters are designed to fit factory equipped handguns and may not prove effective if modifications to the firearm have been made.
- 1791 Gunleather holsters are designed to function safely and are designed for specific handguns.
- It is recommended that the holster be for the model for which it was intended, and that no alteration be made to the holster.
- 1791 Gunleather will not be held responsible for typographical or other human errors that may occur.
- The user accepts responsibility for checking for holster compatibility prior to using the products.
- The user accepts responsibility for ongoing maintenance and regular checks of the holster and its hardware for fit and function.
- 1791 Gunleather will not be held responsible for handgun manufacturer changes in product. Should any 1791 Gunleather product become worn, loose, broken, defective, or ill-fitting, cease use immediately.

HOLSTERING A FIREARM

The gun must be securely seated in the holster each time you holster your firearm prior to removing your hand from the grip. Firearms must fit snugly in the holster to guard against accidental loss of the handgun.

It is recommended that the users place a thumb on the back of the slide to ensure that the slide does not leave the battery while holstering. Fingers must remain off the trigger and out the trigger guard when drawing or replacing the handgun to the holster.

FIREARM RETENTION

It is recommended that the firearms be fully seated in the holster and that all available auto/or manual retention devices are activated. It is NOT recommended that the holsters be relied upon during vigorous physical activity.

Safety precautions include:

- Inspecting all components regularly

FIREARM SECURITY

Carrying a firearm is a serious responsibility that requires constant awareness and it is the responsibility of the user to exercise extreme caution during.